quality food from the experts

WHEN ENTRUSTING A LOVED ONE TO THE RESPONSIBILITY OF A CARE HOME, YOU NEED TO KNOW THEY'RE IN A SAFE ENVIRONMENT AND LOOKED AFTER BY PROFESSIONALS COMMITTED TO THEIR WELLBEING.

So, it's only natural you want to feel sure their meals are tasty, filling and nutritious, providing all the goodness they need.

You can rest assured knowing that, for over 50 years, apetito has provided the elderly and vulnerable with delicious and wholesome meals. Every member of our team has received full training on diet, nutrition and feeding those with dementia, ensuring we are best placed to understand the needs of your relative.

What's more, like the Roux Brothers, Marco Pierre White, Jean Christophe Novelli and Gordon Ramsay, our Head Chef, Phil Rimmer, also recently won a prestigious Craft Guild of Chefs award. So you can count on us to provide great-tasting dishes that make mealtimes even more enjoyable.

“We offer a blend of fantastic meals, guaranteed nutrition and service that's second to none. We're committed to improving the dining experience for your loved ones.”

home cooking on a larger scale

BY BRINGING THE GOODNESS OF HOME COOKING TO OUR MENUS, YOU CAN FEEL CONFIDENT YOUR LOVED ONES WILL ALWAYS ENJOY TEMPTING, DELICIOUS AND NUTRITIOUS MEALS.

We supply every meal fully prepared in frozen trays. However, we don't simply put frozen ingredients together. We cook the meals just like you would at home but on a larger scale.

Our award-winning Head Chef Phil Rimmer develops all our new recipes, and where necessary, refines some of our classics. Phil identifies trends from both restaurant cuisine and the retail sector to keep our menus fresh and consistently appealing.

We're passionate about delivering delicious food. For example, we supply our sponges as raw batters for the care homes to cook and rise in their ovens to create nutritious meals complete with a home-cooked taste.

food that does the world of good

Making sure each dish is delicious is only half the story. We also ensure everything on our menu is packed with goodness, while meeting a wide range of dietary needs. Our expert team continually monitors the nutritional content of our meals, working alongside dietary experts to ensure they're tasty and healthy.

Additionally, our experienced chefs follow the strict nutritional guidelines of the National Association of Care Catering (NACC) and all our menus meet the CQC Standards for Care Homes.

Our chefs are passionate about producing the widest possible range of quality food. That's why we've created over 200 mouth-watering meals and desserts for care homes to choose from. It all adds up to an irresistible menu from people who know food should taste as good as it looks.

There's something to suit every appetite, from traditional favourites such as Roast Beef & Yorkshire Pudding and Sausage Casserole, to more adventurous meals like Curried Lamb with Potato and Tomato, plus a tempting selection of hot and cold desserts. We also offer dishes that meet a particular dietary requirement, so there's always a tasty choice to tempt your relative or loved one.

award-winning choices for eating difficulties

If your relative experiences swallowing and eating difficulties associated with dysphagia, our award-winning textured-modified range is perfect for them. Not only are the choices delicious and nutritious. The dishes look great too, as they're the first of their kind to retain an appealing shape after heating.

making the most of meal times

Working together with care home staff and residents, we help ensure meal times are always enjoyable. Our menus are regularly reviewed so there's plenty of choice, and we provide appealing restaurant-style and picture menus to help people with dementia.

We're committed to helping care homes make the most of mealtimes and provide dignified dining experiences, so residents can enjoy their meals in the company of friends.

We appreciate that, mealtimes are the highlight of the day for many residents. So we'll never compromise on the flavour and quality of our dishes.

Claire Tollit Quality Manager

take the taste test...

If you'd like to try our food for yourself, why not ask care home staff to set an extra place for you at dinner? Alternatively, ask the care home about a relatives evening – we like to drop in regularly to conduct tastings, to give you the confidence your loved one is receiving the very best standards of care.
